PRELUDE TO THE FAMILY OF ROSWELL SMITH, 2D.

NOTE: In our former Genealogy of the Family of Roswell Smith, published in 1819, the factor used was the only one then comprehended, as no evidence was had at that time that the factor used did not comprehend the entire Roswell Smith Family. There was then no evidence known that he did not represent the entire Family. That he died in Orange Co., Vermont, in 1835, was not known, and evidence was then in hand, and was incorporated in the book. That Roswell Smith, 2d, did die at Randolph, Vt., Nov., 1836 (see page 7); also in the Windsor, Vt., Record that Roswell Smith, Jr., died April 13, 1825 (see page 40). This was accepted as proof that our one factor theory was true. Hence the publication was vised. Subsequently it developed that there were two factors to be dealt with in the Record, father and son. Therefore this re-publication was determined upon to make the necessary corrections. Recent investigation having determined that the reported deaths of the said Roswell Smiths, Jr., were not of our line of the family, and were of undeterminable identity. In our recent research for this republication, we have exhausted the State of Vermont vital statistics, and all Town Records of probable information, as well as the U. S. Census and Treasury Records, in our endeavor to supply the error, and give all possible further information of our ancestry.

ROSWELL SMITH, 2D.

Resided in and about Windsor and in Windsor County, Vt., with his father, very much prior to about 1806. He then went to Barnston, Canada, and resided there and in Stanstead, Quebec Province. He and his father both signed a deed to land in Windsor County, Vermont, June 17, 1808, executed in Derby, Vt., wherein they gave their residence as Barnston, Canada. He is presumed to have married in 1807-8 one Olive (or Olive M.) Norton, when or where is not known (probably in Canada), by whom he had a family of ten children in 1809 to 1831.

A letter is extant written by his brother, Steel Smith, from Stanstead, Canada, Sept. 23, 1814, to Roswell Smith, who was then in Angelica, Allegany Co., N. Y., wherein is mentioned Roswell Smith. His brother's family, consisting then of a daughter and son, and a new baby born on July 15 inst. Mary P., born Nov. 7, 1809; Benj. Franklin, born June 25, 1812, and Laura Loraine, born July, 1814.

In 1817 to 1824 he seems to have resided in Braintree and Williamstown, Vt., as several children were born there.

Census of 1830, of Middlebury, Addison, Vt., shows him as head of family, viz :

Males—

5 years and under.....	1
5 to 15 years.....	1
15 to 20 years.....	1
40 to 50 years.....	1 Head of Family.

Females—

5 years and under.....	1
10 to 15 years.....	1
15 to 20 years.....	1
30 to 40 years.....	1 Head of Family.

Census of 1840, same—shows him there with family of 8 children. The Register of Deeds of Middlebury, Vt., shows that Norman Tupper deeded to Roswell and Lewis Smith, both of Middlebury, Vt., the house known as the Levi Needham property, in East Middlebury, Vt., on Oct. 30, 1841. That on Mch. 4, 1842, they disposed of the same property, to Needham & Dennis, of East Middlebury, Vt., by transfer of mortgage.

About 1847 he left East Middlebury, Vt., and went with his family to Taychedah, Wis., and resided in Fond-du-lac County until his death in 1860. He and his wife, Olive M., principally resided with his son, Benjamin F. Smith, in Taychedah. He died October 2, 1860, in Fond-du-lac. She died in Taychedah, Feb. 18, 1853. Both are buried in Taychedah Cemetery Record, viz: "Roswell Smith died October 2, 1860, in the 86th year of his age; Olive M. Smith, wife of R. Smith, died Feb. 18, 1853, in the 61st year of her age."

The Census of Taychedah, Wis., for 1850, gives his family, viz:

Roswell Smith, age 69; born in Vermont.

Olive Smith, age 60; born in Vermont.

Hannah Smith, age 20; unknown.

Same Census records his son, viz:

Benj. F. Smith, age 48; born in Canada.

Hannah Smith, age 29.

Ellen Smith, age 10.

B. F. Smith, Jr., age 8.

Virginia Smith, age 6.

Harriet Smith, age 4.

Same Census records his daughter, "Mariah C.," as the wife of Joseph Otis, of Taychedah, and his daughter, "Martha," as the wife of Sylvester S. Stebbins, of Taychedah, Wis., each with family.

NOTE: Census Record of Fond-du-lac, Wis., for 1860, gives Roswell Smith as 78 years of age. (The Cemetery Record is evidently an error, as he was born in 1781, at Windsor, Vt.) Census Record of Taychedah, Wis., for 1850, gives the age of Olive, wife of Roswell Smith, as then 60 years, and Roswell Smith as then 69 years.

OLIVE M. NORTON

OF THE NORTON FAMILY OF VERMONT.

The Census Record of 1790 enumerates somewhere about twenty Nortons in Vermont—head of family.

The State Statistical Record shows but one Olive Norton of record, born prior to 1800. Olive, born of the family of Zera Norton, of Stafford, Vt. The Census of 1810 shows his family there. Two females under 20 years of age, one Olive, who according to The Town Record, married Daniel Hill, June 29, 1806. The Record says she was born of Zerah Norton and his wife, Ruth, Feb. 13, 1786, she being the only Olive Norton known as of the State Record born prior to 1800. We have to look elsewhere for the Olive M. Norton, our grandmother, who married our grandfather, Roswell Smith (Junior), about 1806 to 1808. No Canadian Records of the marriage, nor of the birth of the three children born in Stanstead, Province of Quebec, in 1809-1812 and 1814 can be found.

The most strenuous efforts to find the Family Record of our grandmother, Olive M. Norton, or a record of her marriage to our grandfather, Roswell Smith, Jr., son of Roswell Smith, son of Steel Smith, of Windsor, Vt., 1765 to 1812, has failed to bring any information except that of her death in Taychedah, Wis., Feby. 18, 1853, at the home of her son, Benjamin F. Smith. The Cemetery Record there gives her age as 61 years. In the Census Record of Taychedah, Wis., for 1850 she is enumerated as "Olive" only, and her age stated as 60 years. Therefore there is two years difference in her age as given in these records. She was born in Vermont, as of the Census Record, in 1790 or 1792. Her husband, Roswell Smith, our grandfather, died in Fond-du-lac, Wis., Oct. 2, 1860. He was buried in Taychedah, Wis., beside his wife. His age being given as of the Cemetery Record as 79 years. Their first child was Mary Peck Smith, born Nov. 17, 1809, at Barnston, Province of Quebec, Canada. He resided at Stanstead and Barnston, where Grandfather Smith resided in about 1806 to 1817-18, where his father was a Baptist Preacher then, having moved from Moreton, Vt., about 1806. In 1820 we find our grandfather enumerated in the Census of Williamstown, Orange Co., Vt. Later he removed to East Middlebury, Vt., and later he went to Taychedah, Wis. (about 1847).

ROSWELL SMITH, 2D.

Son of Steel Smith, of Windsor, Vt., 1765 to 1812, was born in Windsor, Vt., June 20, 1781, and died in Fond-du-lac, Wis., Oct. 2, 1860. He married Olive M. Norton, in about 1808-9 (place of marriage not determined), by whom he had ten children, viz:

Children of Roswell Smith (2), son of Roswell Smith (son of Steel Smith, of Windsor, Vt., 1765 to 1812), and his wife, Olive M. (Norton) Smith.

- (2) State Rec., Mary P. Smith, b. Nov. 7, 1809, Barnston, Canada.
- (2) State Rec., Benj. F. Smith, b. June 25, 1812, Barnston, Canada.
- (2) State Rec., Laura Loraine Smith, b. July 18, 1814, Barnstead, Canada.
- (2) Family Rec., Lewis Smith, b. Jan. 19, 1817, Braintree, Vt.
- (2) Family Rec., Olive Smith, b. Jan. 30, 1819, Braintree, Vt., or Williamstown, Vt.
- (2) Census Rec., Clarissa Smith, b. Mch. 5, 1821, Braintree, Vt.
- (2) Family Rec., Maria Smith, b. 1824, Braintree, Vt.
- (2) Pension Rec., George W. Smith, b. 1826, East Middlebury, Vt.
- (2) Family Rec., Martha C. Smith, b. 1829, East Middlebury, Vt.; Norton R. Smith, b. 1831, East Middlebury, Vt. (Census, Indianapolis, Ind., 1870).

Children of Roswell Smith (2), son of Roswell Smith (son of Steel Smith, of Windsor, Vt., born June 20, 1781), and his wife, Olive M. (Norton) Smith. Date of marriage, 1808-9.

July 7th 1803 Sally Smith is a witness to a a deed from Roswell Smith to Steel & Roswell Jnr.

April 14th 1804 Polly Smith is a witness to a deed from Abnor Child to Steel & Roswell Smith Junr.

Lewis Smith is also a witness in 1804 Aug 10th.

Book 2, page 347.

On the 7th of February 1805. Roswell, Sarah & Roswell Junr deeded 129 acres to Lydia Boynton, and after Roswell and Roswell Junr have taken the acknowledgement this is recorded, "State of Vermont, Orange County, ss Barre the 20th day of August A D. 1805. Then personally appearing the within named Sarah Smith duly examined apart & alone from her husband, acknowledged the within instrument by her subscribed & sealed to be her act & deed and that she did the same without any fear, undue persuasion or per coercion of her husband. Before Me James Fisk Justice of the peace"

Book 2, page 413.

And the same day, Feb 1805 the three deeded to Stuart Boynton 79 acres, and she acknowledges that she also signed this deed under the same conditions as copied above, "without fear, coersion or undue persuasion of her said husband"

But in the deed from Roswell Smith & Roswell Smith Junr. June 17th 1808, their place of residence is named as Barnston, province of Lower Canada, & District of Montreal, and no one but the two Roswell's signed this deed, which acknowledgment was taken in Derby, Orleans Co Vt.

And the 2nd day of May 1810, Steel Smith of Windsor deeded the last of his property to Jesse Gilbert also, who had the mortgage on the 2000 acres when the Smiths first bought in Moretown.

When Roswell & Steel Smith bought the 2000 acres of Jesse Gilbert of Hamden, Co of New Haven & State of Conn. for $2000.00 the mortgaged to him for the same sum, and I have no proof that the Mortgage was ever discharged so perhaps that is why they deeded all the land they had left to him after they left town.

I find no later mention of any of the family. Your work is a good one and I hope you will be able to finish it, and I shall be very glad of a record when completed. I'm sending you a tracing on oil paper of his handwriting taken from the record while he was Town Clerk. He could write very well, but learned to scribble as the rest of us do when there is a great amount of writing to do.

Wishing I might help you more

I remain Yours Truly

Records and Information obtained by Clara McIndoe Perkins, widow of Marsh O. Perkins, of Rutland, and Windsor, Vt., at the old home of Steel Smith and his family, one of the first settlers of Windsor, Vt., about 1764-5. (See History of Windsor Co., Vt.)

Records of Old South (Congregational) Church, Windsor, Vermont.

Capt. Steel Smith moved his family to Windsor in August, 1764. Three years later the first church was formed by a union of persons from Windsor and Cornish, N. H. * * * (The Minister resided in Cornish and preached in Windsor one third of the time.) He received 200 acres of land in Cornish as a settlement, and his annual salary was £40 of which the people of Windsor were to pay one third. For the payment of this sum a bond was given by nine citizens of Windsor. They were —— and Steele Smith. They bound themselves to pay the sum set to their names "on the fifth day of October annually" for five years "in good and lawful money of New Hampshire, or the value thereof in Graine, or pork or beef, or days labor." * * *

On the third of April 1774, eleven persons residing in Windsor received letters of dismission, at their own request, with a view to forming a church in Windsor. Their names were (five men and their wives) and Lois Smith.

In 1779 * * * the leading members were —— and Steel Smith.

In 1782 it was voted that "it is not consistent to tolerate our members in any measure to meet together for the purpose of frolicking or merry meetings." In accordance with this vote, Reuben Smith, who was afterwards a deacon, and three ladies, appeared before the church and "confessed their faults of being in merry companies, and joining with them in frolicking."

Samuel N. Smith by letter from Baptist Ch. Windsor, dismissed to Rochester, May 1, 1840.

From a sketch of Baptist Church in Windsor presented at dedication of new church, 1875:

"On 3rd day of Dec. 1795 certain members of the Woodstock Church residing in Windsor proceeded to unite under the character of the 1st Baptist Church of Windsor— * * *
There is no record of any pastor settling over the newly formed church for two years. The name of a Mr. Roswell Smith seems to be the most prominent as a supply. It is amusing to read the arrangement to meet the expenses. Oct.
12, 1786, a committee was appointed to examine Bro. Roswell Smith's outward circumstances. This committee reported that about five pounds should be raised by equality." (after 5 years under Rev. Pratz).

"The next pastor was Roswell Smith, Sr. He remained seven years, and they were seven years of prosperity.

From an old address:

"The first permanent settlement was made by Capt. Steele Smith, who sailed up the river from Farmington, Conn. about 1763. It is related of him that being a remarkably agile man, he sprang ashore near the mouth of Hubbard's brook to cut the first tree, leaving his companions some distance behind. In August, 1764, he returned with his family."

The farm house (burned in 190?) which stood on the Runnemede farm belonging to the late William M. Evarts (once Atty. Gen., Sec. of State and Senator from N. Y.) was built between 1780 and 1790 by Steel Smith. This was for many years the oldest house in Windsor."

From old paper:

"Capt. Steel Smith began the first improvements by clearing the trees on the site of the old Congregational parsonage, now known as Jason Steele place—about three quarters of a mile north of the U. S. Court House. Capt. Smith came from "Number Four" (Charlestown, N. H.) in a canoe and brought seed wheat sufficient to sow the three or four acres he had succeeded in clearing. The next spring he with three or four others, returned and made a permanent settlement."

From Vermont Journal of Mar. 17, 1823:

"A large and commodious log house occupied by Capt. Smith was destroyed by fire with the principal part of its contents (and it was said to be well filled with the comforts and conveniences of life) about the third year of his residence. This was the first fire which occurred in the place. Capt. Smith died about ten years since, in a good old age, having literally seen the wilderness "become a fruitful field," the forests to disappear, and in their stead a village to spring up, which ranks second to few in New England."

Tax list 1785—East Parish of Windsor, for schools has names of Capt. Steel Smith and Reuben Smith.

Capt. Steel Smith was one of the proprietors of towns of Washington and Warren, Vt.

From a historical address delivered 1776 in Windsor:

"There was, to set the tunes with the pitch-pipe, the veteran leader of the singing in said church, Mr. Hart Smith."

1st pastor of Baptist Church was Rev. Roswell Smith.

Mrs. Elizabeth (Andrews) Curtis, the last wife of Capt. Steel Smith, was at the time of her second marriage, the widow of Capt. Israel Curtis. Capt. Smith was therefore step-father of Gen. Zebina Curtis and Mrs. Nathan Coolidge and step grandfather of Governor Carlos Coolidge.

Deacon Hart Smith (1768-1853) was the second son of Capt. Steel Smith and Lois (*———) Smith, who were the first family to settle permanently in Windsor. He was for many years the leader of the choir of the Old South Church.

Elizabeth Andrews Curtis, last wife of Capt. Steel Smith, died Apr. 19, 1825, aged 86. (Tombstone Inscription)

Tombstone Inscriptions in the "Smith" and other Cemeteries at Windsor, Vermont:

In memory of Mrs. Lois Smith, wife of Capt. Steel Smith, who died Jan. 27, 1796. In the 65th year of her age.

The two graves of this stone are those of Samuel Smith and wife of Samuel Smith.

The two graves South of it are the graves of his two daughters, Sophia Smith and Mrs. Barker.

Lyman C. Smith, died Oct. 14, 1847 (son of Dennis Smith).

Dennis Smith, son of Roswell Smith and Sarah, died Apr. 23, 1825, aged 19 years.

Dennis Smith died May 28, 1814, aged 7 years. Son of Elijah and Mrs. Lois Smith.

Reuben Smith, died Jan. 13, 1838—aged 77 years.

Martha, wife of Reuben Smith, died Sept. 14, 1831, aged 67 years.

Hiram D. Smith, died Jan. 16, 1857.

Deacon Hart Smith, died Mch. 5, 1853—aged 85 years.

Wealthy Smith, wife of Deacon Hart Smith, died Feb. 26, 1845, aged 72 years.

Copy of letter from Steel Smith to his Bro. Roswell Smith, Jr., Angelica, N. Y., children of Roswell Smith, by his wife, Olive M. Norton:

Standstead, 23, Sept. 1814.

Dear Brother:

I this day received yours of the 4th instant by Esq. Boardman. I am surprised that you have not heard from us. I wrote you about a month ago I think. The reason of my not writing before that was the want of explicit instructions concerning the plan of your residence. I could not tell whether it was Angelica—or Angelila—or Angelica, and I could find nothing of them in the Cazittior. I now find it to be Angelica. By Esq. Boardman I have learnt something of the country, but I have only seen him a few minutes today, and I have stopped this evening at Esq. Pomreroys to write this to send by him. You mention 7 or 8 letters, we have received only 5 or 6. You observe that you paid the postage on all but one. I have paid it on all but one or two. I do not know how the mistake happens.

Your family are all in good health, and there is an addition of another fine daughter (15th July). Some say it is handsomer than Franklin, but I think not. Franklin poor boy—is a fine hearty fellow, but I am sorry to say he stammers some, I think he will get over it. Friends in general are well but we have had a good deal of sickness in the vicinity this summer. Capt. Bigelow and Capt. Wood have lost their wives. Mr. Farley, the tailor is dead, and a considerable number of children Standstead and healthy. Mr Cay 203 Wells one Mr. Ludden 2, Saml Bangs—one, and some other out of my mind, in all I think they say in the new township here about 25 or 30 in the course of 2 or 3 months. Many others have been, and are now very sick.

We have a little daughter at our house (6th of July). I do not know who she looks like, but we think she is almost as pretty as yours. She is light complexion. I have sold my farm to Col. Bangs (2 July) and I expect to set out in 4 or 5 days with Mrs. Smith for Montreal, leaving my father and mother in Derby (and perhaps they will move this winter to Barre). For the present I should like to see the country to "the westward," but there are some wise reasons why I should not think proper to come that way at present. You must not fail to coming by Montreal when you come after your family, it will not be a great distance further, and I must see you once more. perhaps I will go to Lanipaner with you yet. If you should see any one coming to Montreal, write me there, (but this will be doubtful while these times continue), and write me by the old conveyance, and I will get them. As soon as I am established there I will instruct you how to direct your letters. It is an unhappy thing to be thus separated from my only brother, but my duty to myself and to my family seems to require it. And yet I am very far from feeling confident of success there; but I am sick of this place, under existing circumstances, and there seems to be but little danger of finding a worse one. We had a frost here about the 25th of August which cut all before it, and another soon after. Since July came in it has been rainy or cloudy more than  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the time, and it has been almost impossible to do our haying or harvesting at all. My health has not been quite so good this summer as it was last, and since I sold my frost bitten grain &c. I have done little else than prepare to go away. I am not determined on anything in particular, but I have thought some on hiring a small farm in the Environs of Montreal, till I can be better determined.

You have before this time heard of some hard fighting on and near Lake Champlain. What a pity to throw away so many lives in this unprofitable war. It is possible I may be drawn into it myself before it is over, I hope not, for you know I am no soldier.

It is now about 10 o'clock at night and I am afraid that I am keeping Mr. Pomeroy and folks up to wait for me.

Experience stays at Barre yet and complains of bad health, but I hope it is not so bad as she represents in her letters, for you know she is apt to exaggerate sometimes. I have had no news from Windsor for a long time. Write me as often as you have opportunity.

I remain your affectionate Brothers,

(Signed) STEEL SMITH.
